Privacy Notice

Green City Action (GCA) is required to collect, store and process the information about you in this registration form in order to monitor the impact of our projects.

What we need your information for and how we will use it:

We are collecting information to understand what help or services you might need. To help us plan these services:

- we will use your address, e-mail and phone numbers to contact you,
- we will check our records to see whether we have worked with your previously,
- we may share information with our partners, to enable them to provide additional services to you, if we cannot provide everything you need,

Office use only – membership number

- we may use your information to improve the way we support you and other people in the future. For example, making changes to the way we work to offer something new that many people have said would be useful,
- we sometimes need to tell organisations that are funding us about how their money is helping people, and your information could be used in that way too.

Consent for Sensitive Data

With your consent, any sensitive information that you have provided to us (ie racial or ethnic origin, religion, health data or sexual orientation) will be used uniquely for the purpose of monitoring diversity. This is a statistical analysis only and will be anonymised.

1 Your agreement:

I understand why information about myself is being recorded and how it will be used and shared and I agree that this information can be used to provide support to me, for monitoring and audit purposes. I am happy for the GCA worker to act in accordance with my consent. I also agree with the terms and conditions of tool hire.

Customer information request

We aim to make our services available to all members of the community in our local area. We regularly review how successful we are achieving this and looking at ways of improving our services. We are asking for your co-operation in providing information about yourself that will help to monitor who is currently using our services. You are under no obligation to give this information, it is purely voluntary.
